The Dough Roller Restaurant on Third Street and the Boardwalk was founded in 1980 by the Gibbs family. During the summers of 1962 and 1963, Bill Gibbs, an Ocean City resident, was a beach boy for The Breakers Hotel on Third Street and the Boardwalk. It was during those months on the beach that he envisioned a restaurant in front of the hotel. The dream became a reality when the Gibbs family bought the hotel and renovated the boardwalk porch into a restaurant. Since then, the Gibbs family has added several Dough Roller Restaurants around Ocean City.

Come back and join us for Lunch and Dinner! Try our famous fresh-dough pizzas, sandwiches, subs, grinders, and salads. After 3 o'clock, we offer Italian Dinners; come try our Spaghetti topped with our homemade zesty Italian tomato sauce or the manicotti and lasagna straight from Little Italy. Beer, wine and cocktails are available every day.
